FINAL ORDER

THIS MATTER was heard by the Board of Professional Engineers pursuant to Section 120.57(1), Florida Statutes, on February 23, 2000, in Gainesville, Florida, for consideration of the Recommended Order entered in this case by the Honorable Daniel M. Kilbride, Administrative Law Judge, dated February 8, 2000. After determining that no exceptions had been filed with respect to the Recommended Order and after reviewing the complete record accompanying the Recommended Order, and being otherwise fully advised in the premises, the Board hereby adopts the findings of fact, conclusions of law and recommendation contained in the Recommended Order, and said Recommended Order is hereby declared to be and this Order becomes the Final Order of the Board of Professional Engineers.

Pursuant to the recommendation of a period of probation for two years "with such conditions as the Board deems appropriate," the Board hereby imposes the following terms: Respondent shall provide a list of all his projects to a Board approved structural consultant. The first list shall be due in 90 days from the effective date of this order, and three other lists every six months subsequent. The consultant shall conduct a peer review of one project from each list, for a total of 4 project reviews during probation. The cost of such reviews shall be borne by Respondent. Respondent shall be allowed to pay the Fine imposed by this Order in equal quarterly installments, with the first such installment due in 30 days from the effective date of this Order. This Order takes effect upon filing with the Clerk of the Florida Engineers Management Corporation.

The Parties are notified, pursuant to Section 120.68, Florida Statutes, that they may appeal this Final Order by filing, within thirty days of the filing date of this Order, a Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Florida Engineers Management Corporation and a copy of said Notice of Appeal accompanied by filing fees prescribed by law with the District Court of Appeal.

DONE AND ORDERED this 1st day of March, 2000.
