FINAL ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR RELIEF FROM AN UNLAWFUL EMPLOYMENT PRACTICE

This matter is before the Commission for consideration of the Recommended Order of Dismissal dated June 19, 2002, issued in the above-styled matter by Administrative Law Judge Daniel M. Kilbride.

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Judge Kilbride's order states that Petitioner failed to appear at a formal hearing that she requested under Section 120.57(1), Florida Statutes. Diligent search and inquiry was made to discover the current whereabouts of Petitioner; however, she could not be located. Respondent moved to dismiss on the grounds that Petitioner, who has the burden of proof and the burden of going forward with the evidence, had voluntarily abandoned her request for any relief at issue in the proceeding by not appearing at the hearing and had, thereby, withdrawn her request.

With regard to the steps necessary for establishing that an unlawful employment practice has occurred, it has been stated, "The initial burden is upon Petitioner to establish a prima facie case of discrimination. Once Petitioner established a prima facie case, a presumption of unlawful discrimination is created. The burden then shifts to Respondent to show a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for its action. If Respondent carries this burden, Petitioner then must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the reason offered by the Respondent is not its true reason, but only a pretext for discrimination." See conclusions of law adopted by a Commission panel in Spratlin vs. Washington Mutual Bank,d/b/a Great Western. 23 F.A.L.R. 3359, at 3364, 3365 (FCHR 201), citations from the quoted statement omitted

We adopt the Administrative Law Judge's finding as to the fact that the Petitioner did not wish to pursue the complaint and further conclude the Petitioner has failed to carry her burden of proof.

Exceptions

Neither party filed exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's recommended order.

Dismissal

The Request for Relief and Complaint of Discrimination are DISMISSED with prejudice.
