CASE NO. 11-04546GM

v.

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY,
Respondent,

and

MONROE COUNTY,
Respondent.

PARTIAL FINAL ORDER

An Administrative Law Judge of the Division of Administrative Hearings has entered an Order Relinquishing Jurisdiction In Part to the Department of Economic Opportunity for final action as to approximately three-hundred parcels of land, excluding the Molasses Reef property, identified in Monroe County Ordinance No. 008-2011 for which no challenge is pending.

BACKGROUND

This is a proceeding challenging the Department of Community Affairs' Final Order No. DCA 11-OR-149, finding Monroe County Ordinance No. 008-2011 consistent with the Principles for Guiding Development of the Florida Keys Area of Critical State Concern. Section 380.0552, Florida Statutes.

Final Order No. DEO-11-0016

The purpose of Ordinance No. 008-2011 is to amend or ratify the Tier Overlay District Designations for approximately three hundred-one parcels determined to have a Tier on the Tier Overlay District Map for Monroe County in accord with the Amended Final Order DCA 07-GM-166A. Only one parcel identified in Ordinance No. 008-2011, the Molasses Reef parcel, previously adopted by Final Order No. DCA 11-OR-149, was challenged by Kawama Homeowners Association Inc.

Effective October 1, 2011, the state land planning agency duties, powers and functions of the Department of Community Affairs were transferred to the Department of Economic Opportunity.

Section 380.05(6), Florida Statutes provides that “[n]o proposed land development regulation within an area of critical state concern becomes effective under this subsection until the state land planning agency issues its final order or, if the final order is challenged, until the challenge to the order is resolved pursuant to chapter 120.”

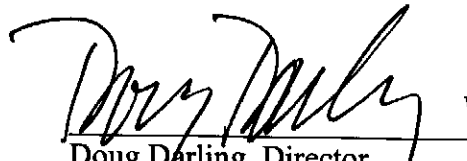

Due to the uncertainty with respect to development rights of individual land owners whose properties are not subject to challenge, the Division Relinquished Jurisdiction In Part to the Department to issue a final order for the remaining three hundred parcels, not including the Molasses Reef property. Monroe County joined and Petitioner Kawama Homeowners Association did not oppose the Motion to Relinquish Partial Jurisdiction.

Since the Administrative Law Judge Relinquished Jurisdiction In Part to the Department of Economic Opportunity to take final action, the Department is the appropriate agency to enter this Partial Final Order. Section 380.05(6), Florida Statutes.

ORDER

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED that the Monroe County Land Development Regulation identifying the revised Tier Designation for approximately 300 parcels, with the exception of the Molasses Reef property (parcel ID number 000-90490-00000), adopted by Ordinance No. 008-2011 on May 4, 2011, is consistent with the Section 380.0552, Florida Statutes Principles for Guiding Development in the Florida Keys Area of Critical State Concern.
