DOAH Case No. 11-5105

FCHR Order No. 12-068

Respondents.

FINAL ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR RELIEF FROM A DISCRIMINATORY HOUSING PRACTICE

Preliminary Matters

Petitioners Vernon and Glenda Shaw filed a housing discrimination complaint pursuant to the Fair Housing Act, Sections 760.20 - 760.37, Florida Statutes (2010), alleging that Respondents EPI Townsend, LLC and Epoch Properties, Inc., committed discriminatory housing practices on the basis of Petitioners' race (African American) by refusing to renew Petitioners' apartment lease, and by subjecting Petitioners to different terms and conditions and discriminatory statements.

The allegations set forth in the complaint were investigated, and, on August 31, 2011, the Executive Director issued a determination finding that there was no reasonable cause to believe that a discriminatory housing practice had occurred.

Petitioners filed a Petition for Relief from a Discriminatory Housing Practice and the case was transmitted to the Division of Administrative Hearings for the conduct of a formal proceeding.

An evidentiary hearing was held in Gainesville, Florida, on March 28 and May 17, 2012, before Administrative Law Judge W. David Watkins.

Judge Watkins issued a Recommended Order of dismissal, dated October 3, 2012. The Commission panel designated below considered the record of this matter and determined the action to be taken on the Recommended Order.

Findings of Fact

The record as it exists before the Commission provides no basis for the overturning of the Administrative Law Judge's findings of fact.

We adopt the Administrative Law Judge's findings of fact.

Conclusions of Law

We find the Administrative Law Judge's application of the law to the facts to result in a correct disposition of the matter.

We adopt the Administrative Law Judge's conclusions of law.

Exceptions

After receiving an extension of time, Petitioners filed exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Recommended Order.

Petitioners' exceptions document takes issue with the findings of fact set out in the following paragraphs of the Recommended Order: 5, 7, 8, 9, 17, 18, 19, 21, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 46, 48, 49, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 58, 61, and 63. In each instance the exception takes issue with facts found, facts not found, credibility determinations made and / or inferences drawn from the evidence presented, and / or provides explanation and / or argument for the fact found at the designated paragraph.

The Commission has stated, "It is well settled that it is the Administrative Law Judge's function 'to consider all of the evidence presented and reach ultimate conclusions of fact based on competent substantial evidence by resolving conflicts, judging the credibility of witnesses and drawing permissible inferences therefrom. If the evidence presented supports two inconsistent findings, it is the Administrative Law Judge's role to decide between them.' Beckton v. Department of Children and Family Services, 21 F.A.L.R. 1735, at 1736 (FCHR 1998), citing Maggio v. Martin Marietta Aerospace, 9 F.A.L.R. 2168, at 2171 (FCHR 1986)." Barr v. Columbia Ocala Regional Medical Center, 22 F.A.L.R. 1729, at 1730 (FCHR 1999). Accord, Bowles v. Jackson County Hospital Corporation, FCHR Order No. 05-135 (December 6, 2005) and Eaves v. IMT-LB Central Florida Portfolio, LLC, FCHR Order No. 11-029 (March 17, 2011).

In addition, it has been stated, "The ultimate question of the existence of discrimination is a question of fact." Florida Department of Community Affairs v. Bryant, 586 So. 2d 1205, at 1209 (Fla. 1st DCA 1991). Accord, Coley v. Bay County Board of County Commissioners, FCHR Order No. 10-027 (March 17, 2010) and Eaves, supra.

Based on the foregoing, and noting that we have above adopted the Administrative Law Judge's findings of fact, Petitioners' exceptions are rejected.
