FINAL ORDER

On May 17, 2017, an Administrative Law Judge with the Division of Administrative Hearings submitted a Recommended Order to the Department of Management Services. A copy of the Recommended Order is attached to this Final Order as Exhibit A. Pursuant to section 120.57(1)(b), Florida Statutes, and the notice provided in the Recommended Order, parties were allowed to file exceptions to the Recommended Order. Qualified Representative Pearl Harrison on behalf of Petitioner timely filed exceptions to the Recommended Order. Petitioner's exceptions are attached to this Final Order as Exhibit B. Respondent neither filed a response to Petitioner's exceptions, nor filed its own exceptions.

PETITIONER'S EXCEPTIONS

Section 120.57(1)(k), Florida Statutes, reads as follows:

(k) The presiding officer shall complete and submit to the agency and all parties a recommended order consisting of findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommended disposition or penalty, if applicable, and any other information required by law to be contained in the final order. All proceedings conducted under this subsection shall be de novo. The agency shall allow each party 15 days in which to submit written exceptions to the recommended order. The final order shall include an explicit ruling on each exception, but an agency need not rule on an exception that does not clearly identify the disputed portion of the recommended order by page number or paragraph, that does not identify the legal basis for the exception, or that does not include appropriate and specific citations to the record. (emphasis added)

Petitioner's exceptions seek to relitigate the arguments rejected by the Administrative Law Judge in the May 17, 2017 Recommended Order. Petitioner's exceptions do not clearly identify the disputed portion or portions of the Recommended Order by page number or paragraph, do not identify the legal bases supporting them, and in most circumstances do not include specific citations to the record, as required by section 120.57(1)(k), Florida Statutes. Consequently, Respondent need not rule upon Petitioner's exceptions, and they are hereby denied.

Therefore, having considered the Recommended Order, the Petitioner's exceptions, and the applicable law, and being otherwise duly advised, it is ORDERED that:

- The Recommended Order, including all Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and the Recommendation, is adopted in its entirety and incorporated herein by reference.
- This Final Order shall become effective on the date of filing with the Agency Clerk of the Department of Management Services.
