AMENDED FINAL ORDER ON REMAND

On November 18, 2020, the First District Court of Appeal issued its opinion in Amanda Soto v. State of Florida, Agency for Health Care Administration, Case No. 1D17-5387, in which the Court reversed the Final Order entered in this case on November 28, 2017. In the Final Order, the then presiding Administrative Law Judge ordered Petitioner to reimburse AHCA for the full amount of its Medicaid expenditures for her past medical expenses in the amount of $231,666.01, in satisfaction of AHCA's Medicaid lien.

The Opinion is dispositive as to the amount Petitioner is required to reimburse AHCA in satisfaction of its Medicaid lien, stating that:

The record shows that the appellant presented competent, substantial, and uncontradicted evidence to support the reduction of her Medicaid lien by using a pro rata method. AHCA failed to present any evidence that the appellant's proposed pro rata methodology was inaccurate or that another method would be more appropriate to apply. For those reasons, the ALJ erred as a matter of law by concluding that the appellant failed to prove that her Medical lien should have been reduced. See Mojica, 285 So. 3d at 396–98. Accordingly, we reverse and remand the cause to the Department of Administrative Hearings for the ALJ to reduce AHCA’s Medicaid lien to $26,641.59.

The Court remanded the case to DOAH for further proceedings consistent with its Opinion. Mandate was entered on December 9, 2020. The presiding Administrative Law Judge having retired since the entry of the Final Order, the case was assigned to the undersigned.

On January 11, 2021, an Order for Requiring Status Report was entered that required the parties to confer and jointly advise the undersigned of the amount each of them believed to be the correct amount to be reimbursed by Petitioner in satisfaction of the Medicaid lien. On January 13, 2021, the parties filed a joint response in which they agreed that the sum of $26,641.59 is sufficient, and required, to satisfy the Medicaid lien. Further evidentiary proceedings are not necessary to carry out the direction of the Court.

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that Petitioner, Amanda Soto, shall pay to Respondent, Agency for Health Care Administration, the sum of $26,641.59, in satisfaction of the Medicaid Lien.

DONE AND ORDERED this 15th day of January, 2021, in Tallahassee, Leon County, Florida.
