

MAR 14 2018

COMMISSION ON ETHICS

BEFORE THE
STATE OF FLORIDA
COMMISSION ON ETHICS

In re JOHN M. DREW,)
)	Complaint Nos. 16-023 & 16-031 (cons.)
Respondent.)
_____)	Final Order No. 18-013

ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR COSTS
AND ATTORNEY'S FEES CONSISTENT WITH PARTIES' SETTLEMENT

On Friday, March 9, 2018, the Commission on Ethics met in public session and considered an order from the Division of Administrative Hearings, dated January 17, 2018, relinquishing jurisdiction and closing its file regarding the petition for costs and attorney's fees brought by John M. Drew against Carlos E. Slay, with respect to the above-referenced consolidated complaints, due to Drew and Slay having settled the matter. Therefore, the petition for fees and costs is dismissed and the matter is closed.

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on March 9, 2018.

March 14, 2018
Date Rendered

Michelle Anchors
Michelle Anchors
Chair, Florida Commission on Ethics

- cc: Mr. Leonard M. Collins, Attorney for Carlos E. Slay
- Mr. Timothy R. Qualls, Attorney for John M. Drew
- Mr. Stephen G. Webster, Attorney for John M. Drew
- Ms. Kayla M. Scarpone, Attorney for John M. Drew