Tax Year _____

Removal of Homestead Exemption(s)

I no longer qualify for Homestead Exemption because the above property was not my permanent residence on January 1 of this year.

I no longer qualify for: Widow Widower Disability Exemption(s)
 Person Age 65 or over. My household income exceeds the adjusted income limit of $ _____

Do not return this form if you still qualify for the exemption(s)

Warning

Florida Law prescribes that it is the duty of the owner of any property to notify the property appraiser promptly whenever the use of the property or the status or condition of the owner changes so as to change the exempt status of the property. If any property owner fails to so notify the property appraiser and the property appraiser determines that for any year within the prior 10 years the owner was not entitled to receive such exemption, the property shall be subject to the taxes exempted as a result of such failure, plus 15 percent interest per annum and a penalty of 50 percent of the taxes exempted. Reference Sections 196.131 and 196.161, F.S.

Please remove the above exemption(s) from my property for the current year.

AUTOMATIC RENEWAL OF HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION

You will not receive a Homestead Exemption Renewal Application for this tax year. You will automatically receive Homestead Exemption for the current tax year. This is your receipt.

If you are no longer entitled to Homestead Exemption you must sign the Exemption removal request on the reverse side of this document and return it to the Property Appraiser.

There are severe penalties for falsely claiming Homestead Exemption.

You are no longer eligible for Homestead Exemption if:

1. The residential unit on which you claim homestead exemption is rented.
2. The residential unit is no longer your permanent home.
3. You are no longer a permanent resident of Florida.

If you are applying for Homestead Exemption on new property or for any other personal exemption such as widows, widowers or disability exemption for the first time, you must apply at the Property Appraiser's Office on or before March 1st of this year.

If you have any questions concerning exemptions or this form call your County Property Appraiser.
