Telephone Numbers: Office: _____ Mobile: _____

Premises ID Number: _____ NOTE: Premises registration is required for distribution of tags.

Quantity of Official Tags Requested: _____

Official tags are made available through USDA-APHIS, Veterinary Services to increase traceability of livestock. Traceability depends on information that will enable tracking of movement from origin to final destination. Acceptance and use of these tags obligates the owner of the livestock to comply with procedures as described by state or federal animal health officials.

Official tags are assigned and traceable to a specific owner and a specific premises. Tags are not transferrable to any other producer. Tags may be supplied in quantities such that surplus tags can be stored by the livestock owner until needed. Tags should be used in numerical sequence and records must be maintained which document approximate date when certain tags were applied to livestock. Records must show whether tags were used in adult cattle or calves. Additional information such as sex and breed is helpful but not required.

Please note: Tagging pliers for applying these tags may not be available from USDA. Pliers can be purchased from animal health supply companies. These tags are manufactured by Hasco and the specific applicators to fit them are Hasco Style #49/56SA and Hasco Style # 75.

Statement by recipient of tags:

I understand that these tags are assigned to me for use in cattle produced on the above named premises. I understand that these tags are traceable back to my premises and should not be used in any other class of livestock or by any other person.
