STATEMENT OF EXEMPTION

Section 604.16, Florida Statutes
Rule 5H-1.009
Phone (850) 488-4101; Fax (850) 921-8312

The undersigned authority, _____
(Name of person making statement) whose title is _____ of _____ (Name of Business) located at _____
(Complete street address, City, State, & Zip Code)

States the following:

This business is exempt from the licensing requirements of Section 604.15-604.34, Florida Statutes, because it meets the requirements of the following exemption(s):

- §604.16(1), Florida Statutes, exempts farmers or groups of farmers in the sale of agricultural products grown by themselves.
- §604.16(2), Florida Statutes, exempts a dealer in agricultural products who pays at the time of purchase with United States cash currency or cash equivalents such as money orders, cashier's checks, wire transfers, electronic funds transfers, and debit cards. [For purposes of this exemption personal or company checks and drafts are not considered to be "cash or cash equivalents".]
- §604.16(3), Florida Statutes, exempts a dealer who operates as a bonded licensee under the federal Packers and Stockyard Act.
- §604.16(4), Florida Statutes, exempts a dealer who purchases less than $1,000 worth of agricultural products from Florida producers or their agents or representatives during the peak month of such purchases within the calendar year.
- §604.15(1), Florida Statutes, exempts dealers who deal exclusively in tobacco, sugarcane, timber and timber by-products, forest products as defined in s. 591.17, F.S., and/or citrus other than limes.

This statement is made to claim an exemption from the licensing requirements of §604.15-604.34, Florida Statutes, in order that the affiant's business may operate as an agricultural dealer under one of the statutory exemptions.

I understand that §604.17, Florida Statutes, provides it is unlawful for any dealer in agricultural products who comes within the terms of this law to engage in such business in this the State of Florida without a state license issued by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services.

I understand that §604.30, Florida Statutes, provides that any dealer in agricultural products who engages in non-exempt activities without a license is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree and for a second or subsequent offense is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree. In addition, §604.30, Florida Statutes, provides for fines of up to $2,500 per violation and a fine of up to $100 per day for continued violation after the Department has entered a Final Order.

I understand that §604.23, Florida Statutes, provides that my claim for an exemption is subject to verification by the Department.

Should the nature of this business' activities change, the Department will be notified immediately of the change so that a new determination of the applicability of the Law can be made at that time.
