The arbitrator only has jurisdiction over those complaints which meet the definition of "dispute" in section 718.1255, Florida Statutes. Check the appropriate sub-section from section 718.1255(1), Florida Statutes, which provides the jurisdictional basis of your dispute:

- (1) DEFINITIONS. -- As used in this section, the term "dispute" means any disagreement between two or more parties that involves:
 - (a) The authority of the board of directors, under this chapter or association document to:
 - 1. Require any owner to take any action, or not to take any action, involving that owner's unit, or the appurtenances thereto.
 - 2. Alter or add to a common area or element.
 - (b) The failure of a governing body, when required by this chapter or an association document, to:
 - 1. Properly conduct elections.
 - 2. Give adequate notice of meetings or other actions.
 - 3. Properly conduct meetings.
 - 4. Allow inspection of books and records.

A dispute does not include any disagreement that primarily involves: title to any unit or common element; the interpretation or enforcement of any warranty; the levy of a fee or assessment; the collection of an assessment levied against a party; the eviction or other removal of a tenant from a unit; alleged breaches of fiduciary duty by one or more directors; or claims for damages to a unit based upon the alleged failure of the association to maintain the common elements or condominium property.

STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

Explain the dispute, including all relevant facts. Each fact must be set forth in a separate paragraph. Be sure to attach copies of all relevant documents as exhibits to the petition. (If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet of paper):

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

State the relief which you seek in arbitration, i.e., what is it that you want the arbitrator to require the Respondent to do or not to do

Pursuant to section 718.1255(4)(b), Florida Statutes, before filing a petition for arbitration, the petitioner must provide the respondent with advance written notice of the specific nature of the dispute, a demand for relief and a reasonable time in which to comply, and notice of intention to file an arbitration petition or other legal action in the absence of a resolution of the dispute. State the efforts you have made to comply with these statutory requirements and attach copies of all letters or other documents sent to the respondent demonstrating compliance with the above-referenced statute:

If the petition is filed by two or more petitioners, the name and mailing address of one person designated to receive all pleadings and orders on behalf of all individual petitioners:

If you have filed a complaint with the Bureau of Condominiums pursuant to Rule 61B-19.002, Florida Administrative Code regarding the same issue(s) raised in the petition for arbitration, provide the case number of the condominium complaint. _____
