PRIMARY REENROLLMENT DUE TO EXTREME HARDSHIP (REQUIRES DOCUMENTATION)

If granted a primary reenrollment due to extreme hardship, a child may withdraw from the initial VPK provider, reenroll at a summer VPK provider, and be reported as one full-time equivalent student, as defined by s. 1002.71(2), F.S.

Reason for the Reenrollment Request* (select one):

- A. The illness of the child, a family member which the child’s parent is responsible for caring for, or the child’s parent, as documented in writing by a physician licensed under Chapters 458 or 459, F.S., if it would result in the child being absent for more than 30 percent of the number of hours in the program type in which the child is enrolled;
- B. Termination of the child’s VPK class as a result of the provider’s removal from eligibility to offer the VPK program, as documented by the early learning coalition.
- C. Parent’s inability to meet the basic needs of the child, including, but not limited to, a lack of food, shelter, clothing, or transportation, as documented in writing by a federal, state, or local governmental official.
- D. VPK provider’s inability to meet the child’s educational needs due to the child’s learning or developmental disability, as documented by a federal, state, or local governmental official.
- E. VPK provider’s inability to meet the child’s health needs, as documented by a physician licensed under Chapters 458 or 459, F.S., or a federal, state, or local governmental official
- F. Displacement of the child from his or her place of residence, or closure of the child’s VPK provider as a result of a state of emergency as declared by a federal, state, or local governmental official.
- G. A temporary or permanent change in parent custody or guardianship, supported by legal documentation such as a court order or official documentation from the Department of Children and Families (DCF) or DCF contracted agency. This includes an at-risk child care authorization that documents the guardianship change.
