1. Reimbursable Method

- (a) As a newly liable employer we elect the reimbursable method of payment for reemployment assistance benefits.
- (b) As an already liable employer we elect to change from the tax rate method to the reimbursable method of payment for reemployment assistance benefits.

2. Tax Rate Method

- (a) As a newly liable employer we elect the tax rate method of payment for reemployment assistance benefits at the initial tax rate for a public employer.
- (b) As an already liable employer we elect to change from the reimbursable method of payment for reemployment assistance benefits to the tax rate method.

Read the information on page two of this form carefully before selecting a method of payment.

* Formerly Unemployment Tax

A public employer electing the tax rate method will be assigned the initial rate of .0025 for the first year under this method. After the first year, you will be assigned a rate based on your own experience rate record and the adjustment factors defined in Section 443.1313(4)(b) of the Florida Statutes. The tax rate may vary from .0010 to .0540 and is on your gross wages. The $8,000 taxable wage base cap does not apply.

A public employer changing from the reimbursable method to the tax rate method will be required to pay under both methods until wages paid under the reimbursable method are out of the base period of claims. Invoices for reimbursement will be due, if there are charges, as well as tax payments for the quarterly report.

Each of the options is for a mandatory period of two calendar years. Written application to terminate one method and change to another must be received at least 30 days prior to January 1 of the year for which the election is to be effective.

Under both payment methods, an Employer's Quarterly Report (RT-6, formerly UCT-6) must be filed within 30 days following the end of each calendar quarter. Any report not filed or filed late will be assessed a $25.00 penalty for each month or portion of a month the report is late.

Payment of tax is required with the RT-6 for the tax rate method of payment. Failure to pay timely results in an interest charge of 1 percent for each full month unpaid.

Payment of amount due under the reimbursable method is required within 30 days of the date mailed, shown on the Quarterly Reimbursement Invoice (RT-29, formerly UCT-29).
